

Project Review

Systematically analyse, process, propose measures

Do you have a business-critical project and wonder whether your project is well positioned? Is your project in a crisis? Or would you simply like a second opinion on the status?

A project review is a test procedure that adapts a project to a specific situation and examines certain predefined aspects. The project review brings transparency, security and enables the initiation of targeted measures.

Our contribution to your success

We offer you a project review adapted to your needs, which includes the following services i.a.:

Planning:

- › Define the objectives of the project review and set the priorities.
- › Ensure the prerequisites for a successful project review.
- › Preparation of a detailed plan together with the stakeholders.

Execution:

- › Preparation of review meetings and establish the documents.
- › Moderation of review sessions.
- › Preparation of results.

Analysis and preparation:

- › Analysis of the results of the review sessions.
- › Drafting and proposing measures.
- › Documentation in the form of a review report.
